THE JUNIOR LEAGUE OF POUGHKEEPSIE WELCOMES 2020-2021 BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Junior League of Poughkeepsie's new Board of Directors took office on June 1, 2020.

POUGHKEEPSIE, NY, JUNE 17, 2020 – After a unanimous vote by the members, the Junior League of Poughkeepsie welcomed its new Board of Directors in early June.

Alicia Favata, President, will be leading the organization after serving as President-Elect from 2019-2020. Jacqueline Altwerger, President-Elect, is serving her third year on the Board after completing two years as the Corresponding and Recording Secretary (2018-2019, 2019-2020). Toni Hamilton, Corresponding and Recording Secretary, was recently inducted to the League and joining the Board in her first year as an active member.

Alicia Atwood and Mallory Maggiacomo are both reprising their roles as Treasurer and Membership Council Chair, respectively. Danielle Strauch will be joining the Board for a fourth consecutive year as the league's Nominating Placement Chair. Ms. Strauch has previously served as President (2019-2020), and President-Elect (2017-2018, 2018-2019). Melissa Clark, Community Council Chair, is also a new addition to the Board after joining the League in 2018.

Dr. Diane Cicatello and Carolyn Ryan were reassigned their roles as Sustaining Representatives of the Board.
